- We reserve the right to suspend or terminate accounts that remain inactive for more than 12 months.
- You are responsible for maintaining the security of your device and ensuring that it meets the minimum technical requirements to run the App.
- By creating an account, you confirm that you are at least 13 years of age. If we have reason to believe that an account belongs to someone under 13 years of age, we reserve the right to suspend or terminate that account immediately.

AI-Generated Content Disclaimer

- Content generated by Obliterated is created using artificial intelligence, which can occasionally produce unintended or inaccurate content. Such occurrences are known as "hallucinations."
- While we take measures to minimize inaccuracies and inappropriate content, we cannot guarantee the appropriateness, accuracy, or suitability of all generated content. Users (and parents or guardians of minor users) agree to review and supervise content generation.
- Our AI systems are designed to filter out inappropriate content, but no filtering system is perfect. If you encounter inappropriate content, please report it immediately using our in-app reporting tool.
- We disclaim responsibility for any dissatisfaction arising from differences between generated content and user expectations.
- We may update our AI models to improve accuracy and appropriateness, but cannot guarantee perfect results in all cases.

- Users must not create or distribute copyrighted material without explicit permission from the copyright holder. This prohibition applies even after your use of the App has ended.
- You remain legally responsible for any copyright infringement or intellectual property violations committed using content generated through the App, even if you later cancel your subscription or stop using the App.
